The Disclosure (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2007

THE STATES, in pursuance of their Resolutions of the 31st May, 2002<sup>a</sup>, 28th September, 2005<sup>b</sup> and 27th July, 2006<sup>c</sup>, have approved the following provisions which, subject to the Sanction of Her Most Excellent Majesty in Council, shall have force of law in the Bailiwick of Guernsey.

PART I

DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION BY FINANCIAL SERVICES BUSINESSES AND BY NON FINANCIAL SERVICES BUSINESSES

Failure to disclose knowledge or suspicion etc. of money laundering - financial services businesses.

1. (1) A person commits an offence if each of the following conditions is satisfied.

(2) The first condition is that he -

(a) knows or suspects, or

(b) has reasonable grounds for knowing or suspecting,

that another person is engaged in money laundering.

- (3) The second condition is that the information or other matter -
  - (a) on which his knowledge or suspicion is based, or
  - (b) which gives reasonable grounds for such knowledge or suspicion, came to him in the course of the business of a financial services business.

(4) The third condition is that he does not make the required disclosure as soon as is practicable after the information or other matter comes to him.

(5) The required disclosure is a disclosure of the information or other matter -

- (a) to a nominated officer or a police officer,
- (b) in the form and manner (if any) prescribed for the purposes of this subsection by regulations under section 11.

- (6) But a person does not commit an offence under this section if-
  - (a) he has a reasonable excuse for not disclosing the information or other matter,

(b) he is a professional legal adviser and the information or other matter came to him in privileged circumstances, or

(c) subsection (7) applies to him.

(7) This subsection applies to a person if -

(a) he does not know or suspect that another person is engaged in money laundering, and

(b) he has not been provided by his employer with such training as is required by regulations made under section 49 of the Criminal Justice (Proceeds of Crime) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1999<sup>d</sup>.

(8) In deciding whether a person committed an offence under this section the court must consider whether he followed any relevant rules or guidance which were at the time concerned -

(a) made or issued by the Commission under section 15 or any other enactment, and

(b) published in a manner it approved as appropriate in its opinion to bring the rules or guidance to the attention of persons likely to be affected by it.

(9) A disclosure to a nominated officer is a disclosure which -

- (a) is made to a person nominated by the alleged offender's employer to receive disclosures under this section, and
- (b) is made in the course of the alleged offender's employment and in accordance with the procedure established by the employer for the purpose.

(10) For the purposes of a disclosure to a nominated officer -

- (a) references to a person's employer include any body, association or organisation (including a voluntary organisation) in the course of the business of which the person carries out a function (whether or not for gain or reward), and
- (b) references to employment are to be construed accordingly.

(11) Information or another matter comes to a professional legal adviser in privileged circumstances if it is communicated or given to him -

- (a) by (or by a representative of) a client of his in connection with the giving by the adviser of legal advice to the client,
- (b) by (or by a representative of) a person seeking legal advice from the adviser, or

- (c) by a person in connection with legal proceedings or contemplated legal proceedings.

(12) But subsection (11) does not apply to information or another matter which is communicated or given with a view to furthering a criminal purpose.

(13) A disclosure to a nominated officer or to a police officer does not contravene any obligation as to confidentiality or other restriction on the disclosure of information imposed by statute, contract or otherwise.

Failure to disclose knowledge or suspicion etc. of money laundering - nominated officers in financial services businesses.

2. (1) A person who is a nominated officer under section 1(9)(a) commits an offence if the conditions in subsections (2) to (4) are satisfied.

(2) The first condition is that he -

(a) knows or suspects, or

(b) has reasonable grounds for knowing or suspecting,

that another person is engaged in money laundering.

(3) The second condition is that the information or other matter -

(a) on which his knowledge or suspicion is based, or

(b) which gives reasonable grounds for such knowledge or suspicion, came to him in consequence of a disclosure made under section 1.

(4) The third condition is that he does not make the required disclosure as soon as is practicable after the information or other matter comes to him.

(5) The required disclosure is a disclosure of the information or other matter -

(a) to a police officer,

(b) in the form and manner (if any) prescribed for the purposes of this subsection by regulations under section 11.

(6) But a person does not commit an offence under this section if he has a reasonable excuse for not disclosing the information or other matter.

(7) In deciding whether a person committed an offence under this section the court must consider whether he followed any relevant rules or guidance which were at the time concerned -

(a) made or issued by the Commission under section 15 or any other enactment, and

(b) published in a manner it approved as appropriate in its opinion to bring the rules or guidance to the attention of persons likely to be affected by it.

(8) A disclosure to a police officer does not contravene any obligation as to confidentiality or other restriction on the disclosure of information imposed by statute, contract or otherwise.

Failure to disclose knowledge or suspicion etc. of money laundering - non financial services businesses.

3. (1) A person commits an offence if each of the following conditions is satisfied.

(2) The first condition is that he -

(a) knows or suspects, or

(b) has reasonable grounds for knowing or suspecting,

that another person is engaged in money laundering.

(3) The second condition is that the information or other matter -

(a) on which his knowledge or suspicion is based, or

(b) which gives reasonable grounds for such knowledge or suspicion,

came to him in the course of the business of a non financial services business.

(4) The third condition is that he does not make the required disclosure as soon as is practicable after the information or other matter comes to him.

(5) The required disclosure is a disclosure of the information or other matter to a police officer.

(6) But a person does not commit an offence under this section if-

(a) he does not know or suspect that another person is engaged in money laundering and he has not been provided by his employer with any training required by regulations made under section 49A of the Criminal Justice (Proceeds of Crime) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1999<sup>e</sup>,

(b) if paragraph (a) does not apply, the person was in employment at the time in question and he disclosed the information or other matter to the appropriate person in accordance with any procedure established by his employer for the making of such disclosures,

(c) he has some other reasonable excuse for not disclosing the information or other matter, or

(d) he is a professional legal adviser and the information or other matter came to him in privileged circumstances.

(7) In deciding whether a person committed an offence under this section the court must consider whether he followed any relevant rules or guidance which were at the time concerned -

- (a) made or issued by the Commission under section 15 or any other enactment, and
- (b) published in a manner it approved as appropriate in its opinion to bring the rules or guidance to the attention of persons likely to be affected by it.

(8) Information or another matter comes to a professional legal adviser in privileged circumstances if it is communicated or given to him -

- (a) by (or by a representative of) a client of his in connection with the giving by the adviser of legal advice to the client,
- (b) by (or by a representative of) a person seeking legal advice from the adviser, or
- (c) by a person in connection with legal proceedings or contemplated legal proceedings.

(9) But subsection (8) does not apply to information or another matter which is communicated or given with a view to furthering a criminal purpose.

(10) A disclosure to a police officer does not contravene any obligation as to confidentiality or other restriction on the disclosure of information imposed by statute, contract or otherwise.

Tipping-off.

4. (1) A person is guilty of an offence if -

(a) he knows, or suspects, that -

(i) a required disclosure has been made to a police officer, or a nominated officer, under section 1, 2 or 3, or

(ii) any information or other matter concerning the required disclosure has been communicated to a police officer, or nominated officer, whether or not in the form and manner (if any) prescribed for the purposes under section 11, and

(b) he discloses to any other person information or any other matter which is likely to prejudice any investigation which might be conducted following -

(i) the making of the required disclosure under paragraph (a)(i), or

(ii) the communication of the information or other matter under paragraph (a)(ii).

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) makes it an offence for a professional legal adviser to disclose any information or other matter -

(a) to, or to a representative of, a client of his in connection with the giving by the adviser of legal advice to the client, or

- (b) to any person -
  - (i) in contemplation of, or in connection with, legal proceedings, and
  - (ii) for the purpose of those proceedings.

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply in relation to any information or other matter which is disclosed with a view to furthering any criminal purpose.

(4) In proceedings against a person for an offence under subsection (1), it is a defence to prove that he did not know or suspect that the disclosure under paragraph (b) of that subsection was likely to be prejudicial in the way mentioned in that paragraph.

(5) No police officer or other person is guilty of an offence under this section in respect of anything done by him in the course of acting in connection with the enforcement, or intended enforcement, of any provision of this Law or of any other enactment relating to criminal conduct.

Penalties.

5. A person guilty of an offence under section 1, 2, 3 or 4 is liable -
- (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the uniform scale or to both, or
  - (b) on conviction or indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to a fine or to both.

PART II

DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION BY AUTHORISED PERSONS

Disclosure of information to police officer by authorised person.

6. (1) An authorised person may disclose to a police officer any information held by a government department if the disclosure is made for the purpose of -

- (a) any criminal investigation which is being or may be carried out, whether in the Bailiwick or elsewhere,
- (b) any criminal proceedings which have been or may be initiated, whether in the Bailiwick or elsewhere,
- (c) the initiation or bringing to an end of any such investigation or proceedings, or
- (d) facilitating a determination of whether any such investigation or proceedings should be initiated or brought to an end.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to any information in the possession of the Administrator of Income Tax.

(3) No disclosure of information shall be made by virtue of this section unless the authorised person who makes the disclosure is satisfied that the making of the disclosure is proportionate to what is thereby sought to be achieved.

(4) Nothing in this section prejudices any power to disclose information which exists apart from this section.

(5) The information that may be disclosed by virtue of this section includes information obtained before this Law came into force.

(6) A disclosure under this section does not contravene any obligation as to confidentiality or other restriction on the disclosure of information imposed by statute, contract or otherwise.

Interpretation of Part II.

7. In this Part-

"authorised person" means -

(a) in Guernsey, a person employed in a department of the States of Guernsey who is authorised by -

(i) the chief officer of the department, or

(ii) in the event that the department has no chief officer, the Chief Executive of the States of Guernsey, to make disclosures under this Law,

(b) in Alderney, the Chief Executive of the States of Alderney, and

- (c) in Sark, a person appointed by the Chief Pleas of Sark to make disclosures under this Law,

"department of the States of Guernsey" means any department or committee (however called) of the States of Guernsey, and includes the Policy Council, and

"government department" means -

- (a) in Guernsey, any department of the States of Guernsey,
- (b) in Alderney, any Committee of the States of Alderney, and
- (c) in Sark, any Committee of the Chief Pleas of Sark.

PART III

DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION BY POLICE OFFICERS

Disclosure of information by police officers.

8. (1) Subject to subsection (4), information obtained by a police officer -

- (a) under this Law or any other enactment, or
- (b) in connection with the carrying out of any of the officer's functions, may be disclosed to any other person if the disclosure is for any purposes set out in subsection (2).

- (2) The purposes are any of the following -
  - (a) the prevention, detection, investigation or prosecution of criminal offences, whether in the Bailiwick or elsewhere,
  - (b) the prevention, detection or investigation of conduct for which penalties other than criminal penalties are provided under the law of any part of the Bailiwick or of any country or territory outside the Bailiwick,
  - (c) the carrying out -
    - (i) by the Commission, or
    - (ii) by a body in another country or territory which carries out any similar function to the Commission,of its functions,
  - (d) the carrying out of any functions of any intelligence service, or
  - (e) the carrying out of any function which appears to the Home Department to be a function of a public nature and which it designates as such by order.

(3) A disclosure under this section does not contravene any obligation as to confidentiality or other restriction on the disclosure of information imposed by statute, contract or otherwise.

(4) Nothing in this section authorises -

(a) a disclosure in contravention of any provisions of the Data Protection (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2001<sup>f</sup> of personal data which are not exempt from those provisions,

(b) a disclosure which is prohibited by Part I of the Regulation of Investigatory Powers (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2003<sup>g</sup>, or

(c) a disclosure in contravention of section 9(5).

PART IV

DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION BY AND TO ADMINISTRATOR OF INCOME TAX

Disclosure of information by Administrator of Income Tax.

9. (1) This section applies to information which is held by or on behalf of the Administrator of Income Tax including information obtained before the coming into force of this section.

(2) No obligation as to confidentiality or other restriction on the disclosure of information imposed by statute, contract or otherwise prevents the disclosure to a police officer, in accordance with the following provisions of this section, of information to which this section applies if the disclosure is made for the purpose of -

- (a) facilitating the carrying out of the functions of any intelligence service,
- (b) any criminal investigation which is being or may be carried out, whether in the Bailiwick or elsewhere,
- (c) any criminal proceedings which have been or may be initiated, whether in the Bailiwick or elsewhere,
- (d) the initiation or bringing to an end of any such investigation or proceedings, or
- (e) facilitating a determination of whether any such investigation or proceedings should be initiated or brought to an end.

(3) No obligation as to confidentiality or other restriction on the disclosure of information imposed by statute, contract or otherwise prevents the disclosure to the Commission, or a body in another country or territory which carries out any similar function to the Commission, in accordance with the following provisions of this section, of information to which this section applies if the disclosure is made for the purpose of enabling -

- (a) the Commission, or

- (b) a body in another country or territory which carries out any similar function to the Commission, to carry out its functions.

(4) No disclosure of information to which this section applies shall be made under this section unless the person by whom the disclosure is made is satisfied that the making of the disclosure is proportionate to what is thereby sought to be achieved.

(5) Information to which this section applies shall not be disclosed to -

- (a) a police officer,
- (b) the Commission, or
- (c) a body in another country or territory which carries out any similar function to the Commission, by virtue of this section except by the Administrator of Income Tax.

(6) Information obtained by means of a disclosure authorised by subsection (2) or (3) shall not be further disclosed by a police officer or the Commission except -

- (a) for a purpose mentioned in those subsections, and
- (b) with the consent of the Administrator of Income Tax.

(7) A consent for the purposes of subsection (6) may be given either in relation to a particular disclosure or in relation to disclosures made in such circumstances as may be specified or described in the consent.

(8) Nothing in this section authorises a disclosure, in contravention of any provisions of the Data Protection (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2001<sup>h</sup>, of personal data which are not exempt from those provisions.

(9) Nothing in this section prejudices any power to disclose information which exists apart from this section.

Disclosure of information to Administrator of Income Tax by relevant officer.

10. (1) A relevant officer may disclose to the Administrator of Income Tax any information in his possession which he reasonably believes may assist the Administrator to carry out his functions.

(2) The information that may be disclosed under this section includes information obtained before this Law came into force.

(3) No disclosure of information shall be made under this section unless the relevant officer who makes the disclosure is satisfied that the making of the disclosure is proportionate to what is thereby sought to be achieved.

(4) Nothing in this section prejudices any power to disclose information which exists apart from this section.

(5) A disclosure under this section does not contravene any obligation as to confidentiality or other restriction on the disclosure of information imposed by statute, contract or otherwise.

- (6) For the purposes of this section "a relevant officer" means -
  - (a) Her Majesty's Procureur,
  - (b) a member of the salaried police force of the Island of Guernsey who holds the rank of inspector or above,
  - (c) a member of any police force which may be established by the States of Alderney who holds the rank of inspector or above, or
  - (d) a customs officer of the grade of senior investigation officer or above.

PART V

POWER TO PRESCRIBE FORM AND MANNER OF AND OTHER MATTERS CONCERNING DISCLOSURES

Power to prescribe form and manner of, and other matters concerning, disclosures.

- 11. (1) The Home Department may by regulations prescribe -
  - (a) the form and manner in which a disclosure under section 1, 2 or 3 must be made, and
  - (b) such other matters as are reasonably necessary to enable any person to whom a disclosure is made under this Law, or any other enactment, to obtain additional information.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the power under subsection (1), regulations made thereunder may make provision for, or concerning-

- (a) the period of time within which any additional information must be supplied by the discloser following its request,
- (b) the form and manner in which any such request must be made, and
- (c) the creation, trial (summarily or on indictment) and punishment of offences, provided that the penalties for the punishment of any such offences shall not exceed those prescribed under section 5.

(3) A disclosure made in pursuance of a request made under regulations under subsection (1) does not contravene any obligation as to confidentiality or other restriction on the disclosure of information imposed by statute, contract or otherwise.

(4) For the purposes of this section -

"additional information" -

- (a) means information which is reasonably necessary to enable the person to whom any disclosure is made to decide -

- (i) where the disclosure concerns money laundering, whether to start a money laundering investigation, or
  - (ii) where the disclosure concerns any other matter, whether to pass the information on so that a decision may be made as to whether to start a criminal investigation in the Bailiwick or elsewhere, and
- (b) includes financial, administrative and law enforcement information,

"a money laundering investigation" is an investigation into whether a person has engaged in money laundering, and

"discloser" means the person making a disclosure under any provision referred to in subsection (1)(a).

PART VI MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Amendment of definition of "officer of police" in Fiduciaries Law.

12. In section 58(1) of the Regulation of Fiduciaries, Administration Businesses and Company Directors, etc. (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2000<sup>i</sup> immediately after paragraph (c) of the definition of "officer of police", insert -

<sup>i</sup> Order in Council No. 1 of 2001.

" and

- (d) includes an officer within the meaning of section 1(1) of the Customs and Excise (General Provisions) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1972;"

Amendment of Drug Trafficking Law.

13. (1) Section 60 of the Drug Trafficking (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2000<sup>j</sup> is repealed, but not subsections (7) and (8).

(2) In section 61(2)(a) of that Law for "58, 59 or 60" substitute "58 or 59".

(3) In section 61(3)(a) of that Law for "58(5), 59(8) or 60(5)" substitute "58(5) or 59(8)".

(4) In section 62(2) the expression "60 or" is repealed.

PART VII
GENERAL

Power to amend law relating to disclosure of information by Ordinance.

14. (1) Subject to subsection (3), the States may by Ordinance amend this Law and any other enactment, or any rule of law (including customary or common law), which relates to or concerns, whether directly or indirectly, the disclosure of information.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) and any other provisions of this Law, an Ordinance under this Law -

(a) may, for the avoidance of doubt -

(i) create new offences, and

(ii) repeal, replace, amend, extend, adapt, modify or disapply any rule of customary or common law, and

(b) may make provision as to -

(i) the disclosure of information to any person including -

(aa) a police officer, or

(bb) the Administrator of Income Tax, and

(ii) the form and manner in which any disclosure must be made.

(3) The power under subsection (1) shall -

(a) where it is exercised in respect of Alderney, be exercised following consultation with the Policy and Finance Committee of the States of Alderney, and

(b) where it is exercised in respect of Sark, be exercised following consultation with the General Purposes and Finance Committee of the Chief Pleas of Sark, but a failure to comply with this subsection does not invalidate any Ordinance.

Power for Commission to make rules and issue guidance.

15. (1) The Commission may make rules, and issue guidance, for the purposes of this Law, or any other enactment or any rule of law (including customary or common law) which relates to or concerns, whether directly or indirectly -

- (a) the disclosure of information, or
- (b) money laundering.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), rules and guidance thereunder may make provision for, or concerning -

- (a) the policies, procedures and controls which are to be established by financial services businesses and non financial services businesses for the purposes of the disclosure of information,
- (b) the nomination of any person as a nominated officer for the purposes of Part I, and
- (c) the circumstances in which any information or other matter disclosed under section 1, 2 or 3, or any other enactment, shall, or may also, be disclosed to the Commission.

Ordinances, regulations, rules and guidance.

16. (1) Any Ordinance, regulation, rule or guidance under any provision of this Law -

- (a) may be amended or repealed by a subsequent Ordinance, regulation, rule or guidance (as the case may be), and
- (b) may contain such consequential, incidental, supplementary and transitional provision as may appear to be necessary or expedient.

(2) Any power conferred by this Law to enact, make or issue an Ordinance, regulation, rule or guidance, may be exercised -

- (a) in relation to all cases to which the power extends, in relation to all those cases subject to specified exceptions, or in relation to any specified cases or classes of cases,
- (b) so as to enact or make, as respects the cases in relation to which it is exercised -
  - (i) the full provision to which the power extends, or any less provision (by way of exception or otherwise),
  - (ii) the same provision for all cases, or different provision for different cases or classes of cases, or different provision for the same case of class of case but for different purposes, and

- (iii) any such provision either unconditionally or subject to specified conditions.

(3) Any regulations under this Law must be laid before a meeting of the States as soon as possible after being made; and if, at that or their next meeting, the States resolve to annul the regulations, they shall cease to have effect, but without prejudice to anything done under them or to the making of new regulations.

Interpretation.

17. (1) In this Law, unless the context requires otherwise -

"Administrator of Income Tax" means the Administrator referred to in section 205 of the Income Tax (Guernsey) Law, 1975<sup>k</sup> and includes the Assistant Administrator,

"Bailiwick" means the Bailiwick of Guernsey,
