"CHAPTER III
CATEGORY 1 ASSOCIATE CERTIFICATES

Category 1 associate certificates.

58A. (1) A Category 1 associate certificate permits a Category 1 associate certificate holder to contract with customers to organise and prepare the customer to gamble.

(2) Activities that organise and prepare a customer to gamble include, but are not limited to, one or more of the following activities-

- (a) entering into an agreement with the customer;
- (b) registration and verification of the customer;

- (c) engaging in financial transactions with the customer and the management of the customer's funds;
- (d) offering or promoting gambling to the customer;
- (e) such other actions that the Commission determines to be activities that may only be carried out by a Category 1 associate certificate holder.

(3) A Category 1 associate certificate issued by the Commission under section 7 of the Ordinance is subject to the same general conditions as apply in respect of a Category 1 eGambling licence under regulation 4, and for these purposes references in that regulation to "a Category 1 eGambling licensee", "the Category 1 eGambling licensee" and "the licensee" shall be construed accordingly.

Requirement to have resident representative.

58B. (1) Subject to paragraph (2), a Category 1 associate certificate holder may exercise its certificate only if it has a resident representative as set out in its approved internal control system in accordance with Part V Chapter 1 of these Regulations.

(2) A Category 1 associate certificate holder having a Key Individual resident in the Bailiwick of Guernsey ("the Bailiwick") may exercise its certificate without having a resident representative.

(3) The Executive Director may only approve a resident representative if –

- (a) the resident representative is resident in or located registered or incorporated in the Bailiwick, and
- (b) the Executive Director is satisfied that the resident representative is a fit and proper person to be approved.

(4) When deciding whether a resident representative is a fit and proper person to be approved, the Executive Director shall have regard to the resident representative's:

- (a) character,
- (b) business reputation,
- (c) current financial position, and
- (d) financial background.

Functions of resident representative.

58C. (1) A resident representative approved by the Executive Director shall act as a proxy for the Key Individuals and Executive Associates of the Category 1 associate certificate holder in respect of the operations of that Category 1 associate certificate holder.

(2) The holder of a Category 1 associate certificate shall authorise its resident representative to deal with the Commission as if the resident representative were a Key Individual or Executive Associate of that certificate holder, and any notice or other communication required to be given by the Commission to the certificate holder shall also be given to the certificate holder's resident representative and acted upon by the resident representative as if the resident representative were the certificate holder.

Absence of resident representative.

58D. (1) This regulation and regulation 58E apply in respect of a resident representative who is an individual.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this regulation, a resident representative shall not absent himself from the Bailiwick –

(a) for any single period exceeding 28 days,

(b) cumulatively for more than 60 days in any period of 12 months.

(2) A resident representative who wishes to absent himself from the Bailiwick for any period in excess of those specified in paragraph (1) shall, before so absenting himself, apply to the Executive Director for permission.

(3) An application under paragraph (2) shall propose a person eligible to be a resident representative to act as a temporary resident representative during the resident representative's absence and, in default of proposing such a person, the application shall be refused.

(4) On application being made to it under this regulation, the Executive Director may approve a temporary resident representative for such period and subject to such conditions as it considers necessary, expedient or desirable.

(5) A temporary resident representative approved under this regulation shall for a period to which the approval under this regulation relates perform the same functions and be subject to the same duties as if he were the certificate holder's resident representative.

Replacement resident representative.

58E. (1) Upon –

- (a) the decease of a Category 1 associate certificate holder's resident representative,
- (b) a Category 1 associate certificate holder's resident representative being certified by a medical practitioner authorised to practice in the Bailiwick as being unfit to continue to act as resident representative, or
- (c) the resignation of a Category 1 associate certificate holder's resident representative, within 7 days the certificate holder shall propose to the Executive Director another person, who satisfies the Executive Director that he is ordinarily resident in the Bailiwick, as replacement resident representative to carry out the functions and duties conferred by these Regulations on a resident representative of a Category 1 associate certificate holder.

(2) A Category 1 associate certificate holder who wishes to obtain approval from the Executive Director to replace its resident representative shall make an application to amend its internal control system in accordance with regulation 191 and 192.

(3) The Executive Director shall determine a proposal under paragraph (1) or an application under paragraph (2) by reference to the same criteria that are applied in approving a resident representative of an applicant for a Category 1 associate certificate.

Nomination of new resident representative.

58F. Where a resident representative or temporary resident representative of an Category 1 associate certificate holder ceases to be a fit and proper person in accordance with Regulation 58B(4) to exercise that function, the Executive Director may direct that the Category 1 associate certificate holder nominate a new resident representative in accordance with 58B(1)."
